

HOWARD COUNTY'S ANNUAL
YOM HASHOAH
 (HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY)
COMMEMORATION

Sunday, May 5, 2024

7:00 PM - 8:15 PM

Pre-Program Gallery 6:00-7:00 PM

Oakland Mills Meeting House

Stumbling Stones to Remember:
 A Loved One Lived Here

WBAL anchor Robert Lang will interview Judy Gartner on her family's experience with The Stolpersteine Project (Stumbling Stones)

This fascinating yet little-known project commemorates individuals at exactly their last place of residency before falling victim to Nazi terror. The memorial effort has placed over 100,000 stones in 30 countries. www.stolpersteine.eu

PROGRAM WILL INCLUDE

Survivor Testimonials • Holocaust Artifacts Display
 Candle Lighting • Musical Selections • Student Essay Winners

Details and registration link for this free event can be found at: www.jewishhowardcounty.org/yomhashoah

